

thINKingDANCE

Upping the ante on dance coverage and conversation

P.S. 40: Identifiers in Art Making

Does it matter to you to have your art understood as being connected to a particular identity, whether sexual, gender-based, racial, political or stylistic? How does it affect your looking at dance when it is described as being strongly connected with any one or more of these identifiers?

October 27, 2014